

The Idaho Department of Parks & Recreation

is offering an opportunity for a Boating Program Manager to work in our headquarters office in Boise.

The Boating Program Manager is responsible for the planning and administration of the statewide boating program, including the development and maintenance of support facilities, overseeing a comprehensive boating safety information and education program, and participating in and conducting appropriate law enforcement activities.

Become a part of an organization where you will work with dedicated and extraordinary people. People who are building parks and providing recreational areas where the spirit and beauty of Idaho is preserved and available to all.

Please visit our website at www.idahoparks.org for more detailed information about our organization.

To view a copy of the job announcement and information regarding the application process go to www.dhr.idaho.gov click on Job Seekers, then click on Current Openings and scroll down and click on Natural Resources – Environment. You will find the announcement listed under the title of Boating Program Manager.

If you have questions regarding the job please contact Dean Sangrey at the Idaho Department of Parks & Recreation at (208) 334-4180 ext 250.

For questions regarding the application process contact Joyce Clark at the Idaho Department of Parks and Recreation at (208) 334-4180 ext 250.